What's Next? Lecture Series: #ChurchToo

Tuesday, March 3, 7:30-9:30 p.m.

In recent years the #metoo and #churchtoo movements have emerged online to highlight the ubiquity of sexual abuse and harassment in secular and sacred institutions. The importance of these movements in making visible the price of patriarchal and misogynistic social structures cannot be underestimated, and they have laid bare the ways in which women are silenced, policed, and abused in everyday life. The movements' outcomes have not been merely negative, however. In them, Catholics who continue to weather the sexual abuse crisis in their own church, can find paths toward renewed solidarity and allyship, intersectional activism and reflection, and a church that strives to be a sacrament of God's reign. ##### Learning to See: Disability, Friendship, and the Christian Life

Tuesday, March 31, 7:30-8:30 p.m.

In this story-filled presentation, Dr. Miguel Romero weaves together theology, narrative, and practical wisdom for Christians who want to begin the journey of thinking theologically about disability. For Christians, followers of Jesus, the first steps involve thoughtful engagement, personal encounter, and faithful friendship. Drawing upon the theology of St Thomas Aquinas and the wisdom of Jean Vanier, the late founder of the L'Arche Movement, Romero describes a way of seeing and a way of moving through the world that reflects the truth of our vulnerable and dependent nature. Throughout the presentation, the vibrant joys and sober challenges of this distinctively Christian outlook will be illustrated through stories and examples from ordinary life. #### North Georgia Catholic Social Teaching Program

Join the parishes of Transfiguration, St. Ann, and St. Joseph for this very special Social Teaching Program.

Pope Francis writes, “Even if now many are involved in lay ministries, this involvement is not reflected in a greater penetration of Christian values in the social, political, and economic sectors. It often remains tied to the tasks within the Church, without a real commitment to applying the Gospel to the transportation of society.” (Joy of the Gospel, 102)

Join us as we seek to respond to this challenge. For more information, contact Tom Reichert at treichert@saintjosephcc.org.

- Thursday, February 13, at 7:00 p.m. in the Adult Ed Room of Transfiguration, Healing Justice

How effective is our current justice system? Does our current system promote accountability? What is restorative justice? How can it help our community?

Please join us for a memorable discussion on Healing Justice. Our guest presenters will be Bert Skellie and Mark Harding. The powerful documentary film, Healing Justice, will
