COVER LETTER
2024 Parish Education/Awareness Grant Application Packet
Catholic Campaign for Human Development, Archdiocese of Atlanta

Overview of the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD):

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) was founded in 1970 as the domestic anti-poverty social justice program of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and of the Catholic community. CCHD's mission is to 1) address the root causes of poverty in America through the promotion and support of community-controlled, self-help organizations, and 2) educate Catholics and Americans in general about the conditions and causes of poverty.

Purpose of the Parish Education/Awareness Grants:

The purpose of this grant is to uphold the Catholic Church's mission to promote the dignity of individuals by educating on and raising awareness of Catholic Social Teaching and the conditions and causes of poverty. CCHD Parish Education/Awareness Grants offer financial assistance to parishes facilitating justice-based education/awareness programs (such as USCCB's Salt and Light or issue specific speakers). Funds are granted to help off-set parish expenses.

Allocations:

Parish Education/Awareness Grant awards will range up to $2,500. (Parish Project grant requests require a different application.) Parishes may submit multiple grant requests, however the Pastor's input will be strongly considered in determining grant award amounts if multiple grants are submitted. A parish may receive up to a combined total of $5,000 for all Parish Project and Education/Awareness grants.

To be eligible for CCHD funds, an education/awareness program must focus on Catholic Social Teaching in response to social injustice(s) and be fully described as part of the application. However, due to limited financial resources, eligibility does not guarantee funding. Programs that most closely fit the criteria and guidelines will be given priority in the evaluation process but all applications will be accepted for review.

DEADLINE: 4:00 p.m. Friday, November 8, 2024. Please e-mail, mail or hand-deliver a copy of the completed application using the information below. If your parish was awarded a Parish grant during the previous grant year then it is necessary for you to also submit, in addition to the application, an award report that details the total funding, expenses, and outcomes of the previous grant year's project. Award decisions will be communicated by Friday, January 10, 2025.

KEY THEMES OF CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING
2024 Parish Education/Awareness Grant Application Packet
Catholic Campaign for Human Development, Archdiocese of Atlanta

The Church's social teaching is a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amidst the challenges of modern society. Modern Catholic social teaching has been articulated through a tradition of papal, conciliar, and episcopal documents. The depth and richness of this tradition can be understood best through a direct reading of these documents. In these brief reflections, we highlight several of the key themes that are at the heart of our Catholic social tradition.

Life and Dignity of the Human Person

The Catholic Church proclaims that human life is sacred and that the dignity of the human person is the foundation of a moral vision for society. This belief is the foundation of all the principles of our social teaching. In our society, human life is under direct attack from abortion and euthanasia. The value of human life is being threatened by cloning, embryonic stem cell research, and the use of the death penalty. Catholic teaching also calls on us to work to avoid war. Nations must protect the right to life by finding increasingly effective ways to prevent conflicts and resolve them by peaceful means. We believe that every person is precious, that people are more important than things, and that the measure of every institution is whether it threatens or enhances the life and dignity of the human person.

Call to Family, Community, and Participation

The person is not only sacred but also social. How we organize our society – in economics and politics, in law and policy – directly affects human dignity and the capacity of individuals to grow within their communities. Marriage and the family are central social institutions that must be supported and strengthened, not undermined. We believe people have a right and a duty to participate in society, seeking together the common good and well-being of all, especially the poor and vulnerable.

Rights and Responsibilities

The Catholic tradition teaches that human dignity can be protected and a healthy community can be achieved only if human rights are protected and responsibilities are met. Therefore, every person has a fundamental right to life and a right to those things required for human decency. Corresponding to these rights are duties and responsibilities – to one another, to our families, and to the larger society.

Option for the Poor and Vulnerable

The basic moral test of any society is how its most vulnerable members fare. In a country marred by deepening divisions between rich and poor, our tradition recalls the story of the Last Judgment (Mt 25:31-46) and instructs us to put the needs of the poor and vulnerable first.

The Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers

The economy must serve people, not the other way around. Work is more than a way to make a living; it is a form of continuing participation in God’s creation. If the dignity of work is to be protected, then the basic rights of workers must be respected – the right to productive work, to decent and fair wages, to the organization and joining of unions, to private property, and to economic initiative.

Solidarity

We are one human family whatever our national, racial, ethnic, economic, or ideological differences. We are our brothers’ and sisters’ keepers, wherever they may be, and loving our neighbor has global dimensions in a shrinking world. At the core of the virtue of solidarity is the pursuit of justice and peace. Pope Paul VI taught that “if you want peace, work for justice.” The Gospel calls us to be peacemakers, and our love for all our sisters and brothers demands that we promote peace in a world surrounded by violence and conflict.

Care for God’s Creation

We show our respect for the Creator by our stewardship of creation. “Care for the earth” is not just an Earth Day slogan, it is a requirement of our faith. We are called to protect people and the planet, living our faith in relationship with all of God’s creation. This environmental challenge has fundamental moral and ethical dimensions that cannot be ignored.

This summary should only be a starting point for those interested in Catholic social teaching. A full understanding can only be achieved by reading the papal, conciliar, and episcopal documents that make up this rich tradition.

Pastor's Endorsement of 2024 Parish Education/Awareness Grant Application

The purpose of this grant is to uphold the Catholic Church's mission to promote the dignity of individuals by educating on and raising awareness of Catholic Social Teaching and the conditions and causes of poverty. CCHD Parish Education/Awareness Grants offer financial assistance to parishes facilitating justice-based education/awareness programs (such as USCCB's Salt and Light or issue specific speakers). Funds are granted to help off-set parish expenses.

Funding for these parish grants comes from the November CCHD annual second collection in U.S. parishes. Of the money collected in November, 25% stays within the local diocese to fund community strengthening projects, while the other 75% goes to the CCHD national office to support anti-poverty initiatives across the United States. We greatly appreciate your assistance with and promotion of the annual CCHD second collection.

Keeping this purpose in mind, please give us your thoughts regarding the ministry/project
