

METROPOLITAN TRIBUNAL

ARCHDIOCESE OF ATLANTA

DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE – PETRINE PRIVILEGE APPLICATION FORM

INSTRUCTIONS

The present form can be filled in either by hand or, preferably, on the computer. If you use your computer, you will need the program Acrobat Reader, which you can download for free from the website adobe.com. Do not use your browser, as it won't allow you to save your file. If you choose to handwrite your answers, please write legibly. In any case, do not forget to sign where it is indicated.

Do not begin filling out this application until you have met with a Tribunal Advocate. Inquire in your parish or contact the Metropolitan Tribunal to learn how to select an Advocate. Take your time in completing the questionnaire. Answer all the questions as completely as possible. Taking some time now will save you time later. Please do not leave any blank answers. If something does not apply to your case, write "N/A."

In this questionnaire, you are the "Petitioner," and the other spouse of the marriage that you are asking to be dissolved is the "Other Party" (from now on, the OP). The person that you intend to marry in the Catholic Church is the "Intended Spouse." The mailing address of the OP is extremely important. Making sure that the address is correct will avoid delays. If you cannot provide the address for the OP, you will have to provide documentation of your efforts to locate it.

Please do not print this document on both sides of the pages.

DOCUMENTS

Please make sure that you are submitting all the required documents by completing the following checklist. Depending on the case, some documents will be required and some will be unnecessary. Please check the appropriate checkbox.

All documents submitted must be originals or copies authenticated by a notary public or by an ecclesiastical notary. Baptismal certificates must be recent and issued within the last 6 months.

Please keep a copy of any documents you submit, in case they are lost in the mail. Incomplete applications will be returned.

AGREEMENT OF UNDERSTANDING

1. I understand that, if my case is accepted for consideration, it does not guarantee that an affirmative decision will be given.
2. I understand that I am not guaranteed that the case will be concluded by a certain date. As such, I agree to wait until I receive a final decision in writing before I set a definite date for a marriage in the Catholic Church.
3. I understand and accept that Canonical law obligates the Tribunal to contact the OP and present him or her with the opportunity to participate in the process. Therefore, I acknowledge that I must provide the full current address of the OP. All reasonable efforts to locate the OP must be exhausted by me. The requirement of contacting the OP may not be omitted.
4. I understand that I must contact my witnesses personally to inform them that I have started this case. I will ask my witnesses to respond.
5. All contents of this investigation will be kept confidential, reserved exclusively to the designated officials of the Catholic Church, according to the canon law of the Roman Catholic Church.
6. I understand that if, with occasion of the instruction of the case, the Metropolitan Tribunal were to learn about specific information, then by law the Metropolitan Tribunal may be required to report such information to legal authorities. Such information may include names or situations in which a minor has been subjected to physical or sexual abuse or neglect. I release the Archdiocese of Atlanta and its agents from any liability for disclosure of information to appropriate legal authorities about abuse of a minor.
7. I also understand that if, with occasion of the instruction of the case, the Metropolitan Tribunal were to learn about specific information regarding abuse (past or present) by clergy or other professional employees or volunteers of the various parishes and institutions of the Roman Catholic Church, this information will be reported to the Office of the Archbishop of Atlanta.
8. In recognition of the religious nature of this process, I voluntarily waive now, and in the future, any rights under civil law to subpoena the acts of the case in judicial discovery. This waiver is given without reservation, condition or limit of time.
9. I agree to keep confidential and secret any information that I shall learn in the course of the process because all testimony in this case is given for the possible ecclesiastical dissolution of my marriage. Since my interest is solely to present my case to the Tribunal, I promise not to use information that I may learn through the case in any other forum or for any other purpose.
10. I understand that no fees will be charged for any cases submitted to the Metropolitan Tribunal of Atlanta. However, I acknowledge that a fee will be required by the Holy See if the case is transmitted to Rome.

ELECTRONIC TRANSMISSION OF DATA

The use of new technologies allows for more expedience and convenience in our communications. If you are willing to receive our communications electronically, please sign the acceptance below.

Definition of electronic case file transmission: For the purposes of this agreement, electronic transmission of data refers to the communication of information pertaining to the case, between the Petitioner and the Tribunal, via email and/or other appropriate electronic means.

Benefits of electronic case file transmission: The electronic transmission of case information reduces costs through the diminishment of paper consumption as well as postal fees. In addition to being cost-efficient, this also reduces delivery time and permits the rapid dissemination of information to all case handlers and case parties.

Risks of electronic case file transmission: Electronic transmission of case information presents an inherent level of risk to the confidentiality of information related to a Petitioner's case file. Although the email server of the Tribunal is encrypted, and documents are password-protected in an effort to maintain case file confidentiality, electronic transmission of material cannot guarantee confidentiality. By signing below and utilizing the electronic transmission system, the Petitioner acknowledges and agrees to the information and terms contained herein, and further waives any and all claims against, and agrees to hold harmless the Archbishop of Atlanta, the Tribunal and any sender of case information via electronic transmission, with respect to any and all claims, loss and/or damage arising from and/or related to the electronic transmission of case information.

Parties who may receive electronic case file transmission: Case information may be sent electronically from the Tribunal to the following parties: Judges, Psychologists, Counselors, Petitioner and/or OP Advocates, Defender of the Bond, Promoter of Justice, and Court of Second Instance.

I have read and understand the information provided to me regarding the Tribunal's release of information through electronic means, and I agree to the terms.

Do you want to receive our communications electronically? Yes No.

WITNESSES

It is essential to demonstrate the lack of baptism of the OP, the Petitioner, or both. Depending on your case, you have to propose witnesses for the OP, the Petitioner, or for both.

Please name at least two witnesses who are able and willing to provide testimony about the lack of baptism.

The preferred witnesses are the parents of the unbaptized person. Other competent witnesses may be older siblings, uncles, aunts or older cousins, as long as they can testify to the absence of baptism.

Before submitting their names, personally contact each witness and make sure that they are willing to testify.
