CRS RICE BOWL Grant Application Packet
Justice and Peace Ministries, Archdiocese of Atlanta

PURPOSE of the CRS RICE BOWL Grants:

The purpose of the CRS RICE BOWL Grant is to provide funds to parishes, schools, and other organizations, in support of projects and programs that educate on, raise awareness of, and promote advocacy around food and hunger issues. The intent of the grant is to assist people in bringing about change to those structures that are unjust and/or to help in removing barriers to food security and hunger alleviation.

FUNDING Allocations:

Rolling funding for CRS RICE BOWL Grants comes from a dedicated Archdiocese of Atlanta CRS RICE BOWL fund. Funding is based on both funds available and evaluation of the CRS RICE BOWL Grant Application. Parishes, schools and other organizations that receive grants are encouraged to participate in the annual CRS Rice Bowl program and funding preference will be given to those currently participating. Grants are limited to $1,000/annually.

INSTRUCTIONS: A copy of the entire completed CRS RICE BOWL Grant Application should be returned to Kat Doyle at the Archdiocese of Atlanta Justice and Peace Ministries office using the information below.
