

THE ROMAN CATHOLIC
ARCHDIOCESE OF ATLANTA

Statement by Archbishop Wilton D. Gregory Regarding Bishop Luis R. Zarama's Appointment as Bishop of Raleigh, NC

The Holy Father has chosen well even though his decision takes a deeply beloved brother and friend from our midst. I join Bishop-Elect Shlesinger and all of the clergy, religious, and faithful of The Archdiocese of Atlanta in assuring Bishop Zarama of our prayers and warmest best wishes as he begins this new service to Christ's Church. While we will have time to celebrate his appointment to The Diocese of Raleigh before he takes leave for his August 29th Installation, we promise him our affectionate best wishes and congratulations on this happy moment for him and for all of God's People in The Diocese of Raleigh.
